

ASSISI ANIMAL SANCTUARY CERTIFICATE OF UNDERTAKING SCHEME

Where would your loving pets be without you? Do you worry about what will happen to them if you pass away before they do? Many older people decide not to rehome another pet because they believe the pet will outlive them and they do not want that worry.

Assisi offers a 'Certificate of Undertaking Scheme' whereby we undertake to care for your companion animals if you pass away before they do. This is a free service that gives anyone concerned peace of mind about the welfare of their pets beyond their lifetime. The scheme applies to cats, dogs, rabbits and guinea pigs, even if they were not rehomed from Assisi. We will treat every one of the animals we bring in as a beloved family pet and do our utmost to ensure they are well cared for until a new, loving home is found.

If you are interested in signing up to this scheme, please leave us your contact details below and a Certificate of Undertaking pack will be posted to you. This pack will include 4 copies of a certificate which will be signed by one of our Trustees, to be distributed out to your solicitor, family member, a neighbour, and one for yourself. This set of certificates will be proof that Assisi has agreed to take over the care of your animals in the event of your passing.
